

About the Library

The College Library is a vital academic support system that fulfils the teaching, learning, and research needs of students and faculty members. The library has a well-organized collection of 9030 books, including textbooks, reference books, competitive-examination books and general reading material covering various academic disciplines.

The library maintains 15 research journals, 15 educational journals, 05 encyclopedias. It also provides magazines and daily newspapers, giving students access to current academic and general information.

A well-furnished Reading Room with a seating capacity of 50 students is available, offering a quiet and disciplined environment for effective study and self-learning.

The library is equipped with Digital / E-Resources to support modern learning requirements. It also provides an OPAC (Online Public Access Catalogue) facility, enabling users to search and access information about available library resources easily.

Library services include book lending, reference services, reading-room facilities, access to digital resources and OPAC services during working hours, in accordance with prescribed library rules and regulations.
